FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

CARTER'S BIZ CAFES to host
SECOND ANNUAL
NORTH BAY ART & FILM FESTIVAL
OCTOBER 6-8, 2017
A SHOWCASE OF THE UNIQUE CHARACTER AND TALENT OF THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (July 1, 2017) -- Carter's Biz Cafes will once again host the North Bay Art & Film Festival (NBAFF) showcasing independent local, national and international short films along with the works of artisans from Northern California on October 6-8, 2017. The NBAFF is a campus-wide event that includes the Commanding Officers Quarters and the Benicia City Clocktower, both are historic sites in Benicia, California and are surrounded by the beautiful San Francisco Bay. Although held in Northern California, the North Bay Arts & Film Festival is an open event and the organizers expect a repeat of last year and receive submissions from throughout the nation and the world.

"To date we've year we received films from all over the U.S. And, we received entries from international filmmakers in China, Iran, Sweden, France, Spain, Greece and more," said Carter Rankin, CEO and Founder of Carter's Biz Cafes, a membership, co-working venture located in a 157-year old historical landmark known as the Commanding Officers Quarters. William K. Wesley, Festival Coordinator adds, "The combination of the works of independent filmmakers and local artisans makes this event very exciting. We once again expect dozens of artisans, artists and craftspeople from all over the Bay Area and Northern California."

Prolific filmmaker and NBAFF Judge Chairperson Jacalyn Evone states, "Last years' 1st Annual NBAFF exceeded our expectations. The quality of the films. the venue and the ambiance were unparalleled. With such close proximity to San Francisco and Silicon valley, we hosted an exceptionally talented, socially aware and technologically connected audience. We featured VR hands-on demonstrations, Q&A with movie makers about films and technology used to make them."

NBAFF is in and supports the Solano County community. Part of the net proceeds will be given to the Benicia Education Foundation whose mission is to support the seven Benicia public schools.
