

Saturday, October 7th
NORTH BAY ART AND FILM FESTIVAL

AWARD-WINNING SHORTS

An evening of prize-winning films from around the country.

Documentary

Mother's Day

Dir. R.J. Lozada, Elizabeth Lo, 2017

Best Documentary Short, DocFest, San Francisco

An annual bus service that takes children to visit their mothers in prison explores the impact of mass incarceration on a generation of youth.

Comedy

Invasion

Dir. Eve Edelson

Winner Bluestocking Challenge Award - Rules were to create a road trip theme, shoot on a cell phone (iPhone in this case), seven minutes or less, and following the Bechdel-Wallace rule.

An alien crash-lands on Earth and finds herself in the wrong buddy movie. The film that asks the question every extra-terrestrial invader should ask - "Who packed this parachute?!"

Documentary

Space James

Dir. Michael Ruiz, 2017

2nd place, Science Art Cinema Festival, Miami, Florida.

A documentary profiling a young boy who lives in Liberty City who stumbles upon a VHS tape of Space Jam.

Drama

Walk of Shame

Dir. Jonas Breneman

Nominated for Best Actress in a Short Film, Best Actress in Festival, Best Drama Short, Best Poster, Best Editing, Best Short in Festival, Best Producing - Austin Revolution Film Festival

"Walk of Shame" follows the emotional journey of a successful realtor, after an unexpected night on the town.

Comedy

Duelle

Dir. Sarah Demeestere

Best Actress, Sarah Demeestere and Best Photography

The story of two complete different women who discover they are one.